Subject Line: Revolutionize incentives

Hi (First Name),

Incentivize your employees to do their best work while saving 73% on costs. Reward your employees, not your vendors!

This is [REDACTED] with [REDACTED]. We are changing the way organizations recognize, reward, and engage employees. Our Amazon partnership and wide selection of reward options allows us to offer 200 million+ items that your people actually want, with ZERO markups (yes, you read that right!) as well as fast and convenient shipping.

The intuitive and simple user software platform makes administrative tasks such as reporting and tracking your spend easy from the back end. Full reporting capabilities run whenever, wherever, with help from our team to get you all the analytics you need.

Redeeming incentives for sales goals, birthdays, work anniversaries, and so much more is quick (and enjoyable) for your employees. Celebrate moments that matter, and save your bottom line at the same time.

I'd like to offer you a complimentary analysis to identify the potential savings you could receive with [REDACTED].

May I give you more information?

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

Subject Line: Amazon + [REDACTED] = Better Rewards

Hi (First Name),

What if I told you there was a way to run a successful employee incentive program without the 200% markups?

Amazon changed the way people shop. Now, through a partnership with Amazon, [REDACTED] is changing the way employers incentivize and engage their employees.

Studies suggest that as little as 33% of American workers are engaged at work. [REDACTED] allows you to create the point system that is right for your company to improve engagement and puts the control into the hands of your people to work hard, then receive the rewards they want. With 200 million+ rewards to choose from, there is something for everyone.

Our solution simplifies incentive programs with one platform, zero product markups and Amazon Business Prime shipping. How's that for incentive?

May I give you more information?

Best,

[REDACTED]

Subject Line: Give the people what they want

Hi (First Name),

One of the best ways to engage employees is to involve them in their own recognition—let them choose how they want to be rewarded, and see engagement skyrocket.

Gone are the days of antiquated catalogs with limited selections that don't fit every taste or lifestyle, and point systems that are hard to manage, track, and claim. [REDACTED] and Amazon Business have teamed up to offer an integrated software solution with millions of products on a simple platform with fast, free shipping.

What's more, we've eliminated markups, so you can offer more for less. Put the control back into your organization for how your employees receive incentives, while seeing a 73% vendor savings—zero hidden fees, no markup and free shipping solutions.

Through Amazon and other highly touted vendors such as Priceline Hotels, Event Tickets, and various gift card vendors, [REDACTED] has something that will inspire every one of your employees to do their best work.
